

Please uphold Indiana's telephone privacy law. Our evening with our family is the only time we have together and it is so much better now that banks etc are not calling CONSTANTLY. The current president is in favor of family values and this is one to be sure. It is an invasion into our home life and is very resented by all. Constant barrages by advertisements is not mentally healthy.